Introductions & Business Meeting - 9:00AM – 9:30 AM

Program - 9:30AM – 11:30AM

Program: “Assessing Career Counseling Issues”

Program Description: In dealing with personal and professional concerns at the workplace. EAP counselors have an opportunity to identify if part of the issue may be whether clients are in careers or jobs not well suited for them. This program will present career development information to raise awareness about how to assess what may be a problem at a work situation from a career perspective.

Goals of the Program:

1. To understand components of a career development model.
2. To help clients analyze what issues of unhappiness or mismatch are at hand at work related to career choice
3. To experience the relevance of interests and skills in choosing a career or job through an interactive exercise based on John Holland's career development theory.
4. To learn about career exploration methods and resources including web sites, local career resources and information in interviewing.

Presenter: Karen Litzinger MA, NCC, GCDF

Moderator: Patty Epps
